

Journal #1 9.26.11

Do you often find yourself thinking one thing but saying something different? Why do people do this? When does this come in handy? What types of people might teenagers be less than honest with?

Journal #2

- American Dream Brainstorm 9.28
- 100 words

Journal #3 10.4.11

- With your group, create Chapter Titles for Chapters 3, 4, and 5.

Think about the important action, character development, imagery etc...

- Choose one section from the three chapters that you think would be worth discussing as a whole group. Why did you choose it? Explain`

Journal #4 10.6

- Write in the voice of Holden about the death of Allie. Use Page 38. 200 words or more.

Journal #5

- You are a private investigator hired by the Caulfields to follow and diagnose their son. Follow him from chapter 8 through the first page of chapter 9. Where does Holden go? What does he do? What might be wrong with him?
- Write a report for his parents.

- Journal #5 10.6.11
- Write in the voice of Holden about the death of your brother Allie. Incorporate details from the novel about what Allie was like and how you (Holden) reacted to his sudden death.

Journal #6

- One Paragraph of advice for Holden who has called you from his hotel room. What would you say to this guy if he was your best friend?

- In the voice of Holden Caulfield, retell one of your favorite fairytales. Tell the whole story in Holden's voice from his perspective. Use Holdenisms from our list.

#7

- In the voice of Holden Caulfield, retell one of your favorite fairytales. Tell the whole story in Holden's voice from his perspective. Use Holdenisms from our list.

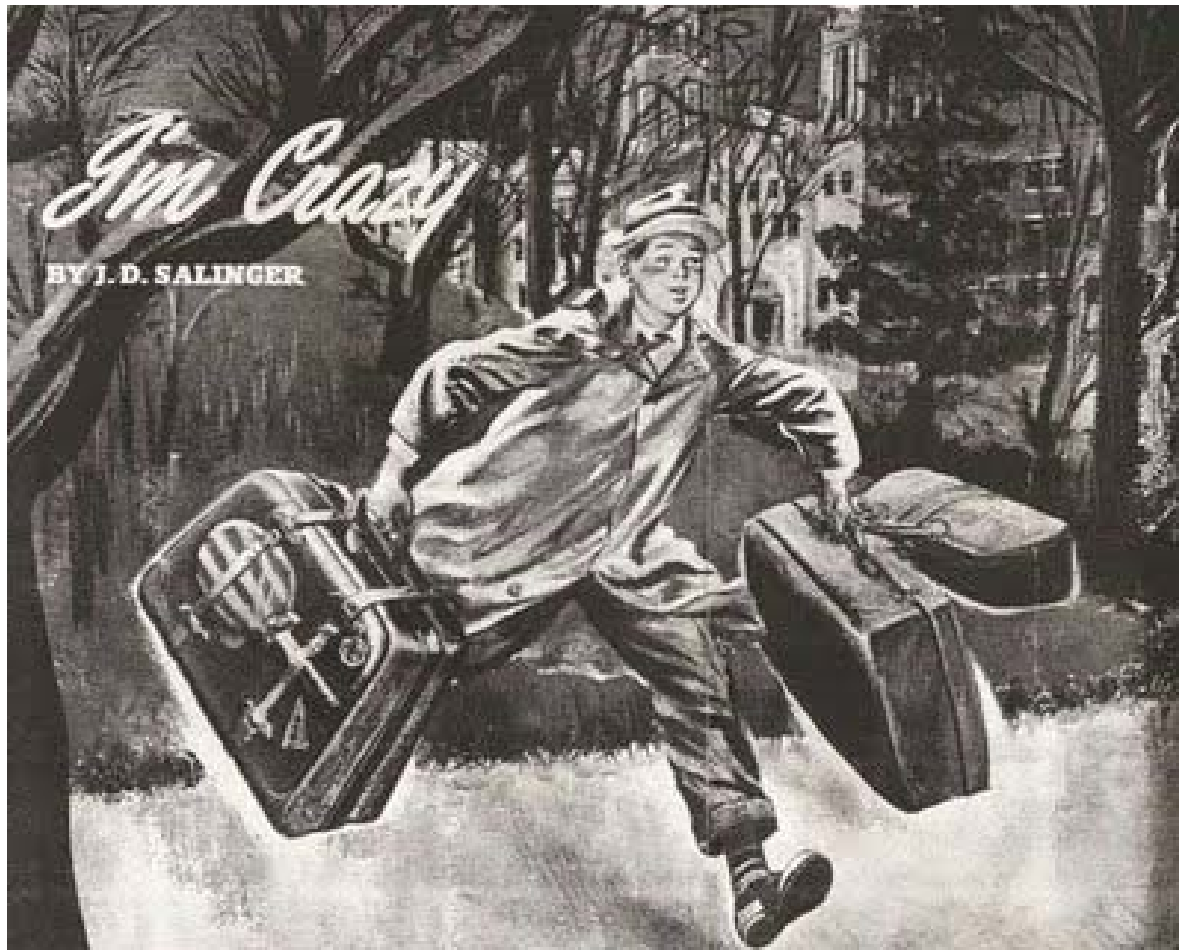

Brainstorm a list of Fairytales

stevemasson72@gmail.com

Journal #8

- In full, vivid detail—write about a place from your childhood that is near and dear to your heart. A place where you played, learned, fought, explored or dreamed. Bring it to life with images and action.
- Journals will be collected on Monday

Journal #9

- Write the obituary for Holden Caulfield.
 - Cause of death
 - Age
 - Family
 - Profession
 - Notable accomplishments?
 - Incorporate specifics from the text

Paragraph 1– General reasons that Holden is leaving Pencey.

- Reason 1
- Reason 2
- Reason 3 etc...
- Transition

Paragraph 2—Loss of Allie and article.

- Overview/Topic Sentence
- Article/Info/Quote
- Specifics from Novel Quote
- Concluding thought.

